

Applying for your child's new passport?

If you have EU Settlement Scheme (EUSS) status, make sure you read this information to know if you need to apply for EUSS status for your child!

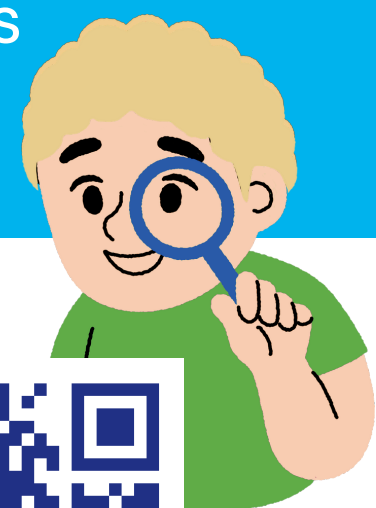

Please be aware that:

- Children do not automatically get EUSS status even if a parent has status
- There is a deadline, but you can apply late
- Some children are born British and do not need EUSS status

Why this matters

EU Settlement Scheme status or a British passport is how your child secures their rights in the UK.

Scan the QR code for more information about:

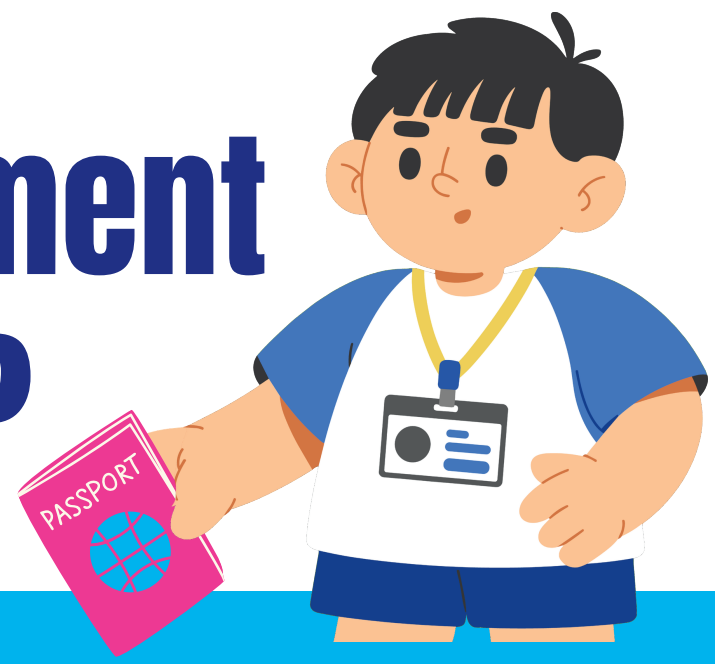

- Applying for EUSS
- Applying for a British passport if your child is British

Delegation of the European Union
to the United Kingdom

eucitizens.uk

Do you have EU Settlement Scheme status (EUSS)?

If you are applying for your child's passport or ID document, make sure read this information you to know if you need to apply for EUSS status for your child!

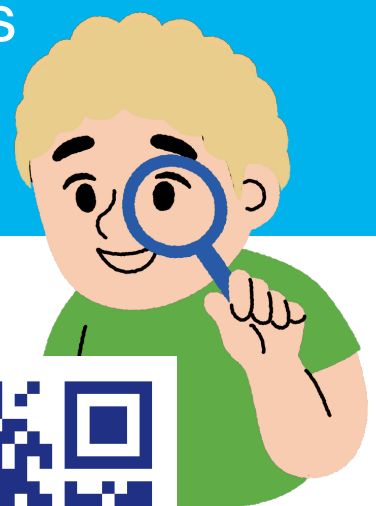

Please be aware that:

- Children do not automatically get EUSS status even if a parent has status
- There is a deadline, but you can apply late
- Some children are born British and do not need EUSS status

Why this matters

EU Settlement Scheme status or a British passport is how your child secures their rights in the UK.

Scan the QR code for more information about:

- Applying for EUSS
- Applying for a British passport if your child is British

